Listening to Direct Caregivers - Las Cruces, NM a conversation with Family and Professional Caregivers

Necesita este mensaje en español?

Dear Members and Friends,

We're looking for a few good family and professional caregivers for feedback on challenges you're facing and solutions you may have. We also want to find local leaders and advocates as we travel throughout New Mexico and hear from caregivers. The New Mexico Direct Caregivers Coalition will host a listening session for southern New Mexico caregivers on:

Friday, March 22, 2013
3:30-5:30 pm (English)
Tom Branigan Memorial Library, Roadrunner Room
200 E. Picacho Ave.
Las Cruces, NM 88001

We want to hear from caregivers on any and all issues important to you. Examples include:

- Education, Training, Credentialing
- Respect and Recognition in the Workplace
- Wages and Benefits
- Resources for caregivers on health promotion and long-term care insurance
- Resources for caregivers on how the Affordable Care Act impacts you
- Become a local leader of caregivers
- Help develop statewide policy agenda for caregivers
- State Representative Jeff Steinborn on 2013 legislative session outcomes (invited)

All are welcome! Targeted audience includes family and unpaid caregivers, professional paid caregivers, those serving persons who are elderly and/or those with disabilities, family members, friends and advocates of caregivers.

Travel vouchers are available to those who are eligible (caregivers, persons with disabilities, family members, advocates). To receive a travel voucher, you must pre-register.

This event is free but pre-registration is required
