Senator Michael Padilla (D, Albuquerque) and Representative Kelly Fajardo (R, Belen) seek to hear from family and professional caregivers on challenges and solutions in caring for clients and family members.

If you haven't already registered, join us at the New Mexico Workforce Connection this Saturday:

October 19, 2013
 10:00am-noon

New Mexico Workforce Connection
 501 Mountain Rd., NE
 (corner of Mountain and Edith) Albuquerque, NM 87102

Info on how to sign up for health insurance!

Make your voice heard
 Attend one, attend both!

State legislators want to hear from caregivers about issues in the workplace, resources and solutions needed, like:

- Education, training and credentialing
- JOBS for caregivers
- Respect and recognition in the workplace
- Wages and benefits
- Why you need to sign up for health insurance
 through the New Mexico Health Insurance Exchange--including Federal subsidies for health insurance--and in spite of what you think you know!

About the Coalition

The New Mexico Direct Caregivers Coalition is a statewide 501(c)6

All are welcome! Target audience includes family/unpaid caregivers and professional/wage-earning caregivers serving persons who are elderly and/or those with disabilities; caregiver advocates; agency staff. Care organization created to promote the voice of family and professional caregivers and those they serve.

We advocate for direct care workers' education, training, benefits, wages and professional development.

Support our work by getting involved in this and other dialogues of NMDCC
