NMDCC is proud to announce a much-anticipated feature of our new, easy-to-navigate website: the Caregiver Registry! As THE organization for caregivers and their care recipients in New Mexico, we are where individuals go to offer their skills as a caregiver.

Are you an independent caregiver? Sign up for a free listing by May 13 and be entered to win one of three $20 Wal-Mart gift cards! Every caregiver who registers before that date will be entered into the drawing. Then, care recipients, family members and agencies can find you.

Are you an agency? Agencies that sign up by May 13 can get a listing at no cost. After May 13, agencies can get listings at the regular corporate rate.

Are you seeking a caregiver? We'll send you our new website in a few days so you can find the New Mexico caregiver who is right for you.

NMDCC's Caregiver Registry is paid for with funding from Con Alma Health Foundation and McCune Charitable Foundation.

NMDCC EXPANDS CUSTOMIZED TRAINING, REACHING RETIRED SENIOR VOLUNTEERS

NMDCC is delivering the "Customized Training for Caregivers" to Sandoval County Retired Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP) caregivers this week! Instruction covers:

- Communication Skills/Dealing with Difficult Clients

ABOUT the Coalition

The New Mexico Direct Caregivers Coalition is a statewide 501(c)6 organization created to promote the voice of family and professional caregivers and those they serve.

We advocate for direct care workers' education, training, benefits, wages and professional development.

- Ethical/Legal Considerations in Direct Care
- Principles of Person-Centered Planning
- Activities of Daily Living
- Infection Control and Sterile Procedure
- Transfer and Mobility
- Managing Medications
- Diet and Nutrition

This training is open only to Sandoval County RVSP volunteers. Training is available to public and private agencies and health plans and results in skills attainment and preparation to earn the nationally-recognized Direct Care Alliance Personal Care Support Credential.

If you'd like to arrange training of your agency's caregivers, write info@nmdirectcaresupport.org or call the number below.
